Chicago is, without a doubt, a Great Lakes city, but—these days—the world is our oyster.

Devon Seafood Grill

Looking for a break after a day of shopping on Michigan Avenue? The sleek, seafood-focused spot, Devon Seafood Grill, offers a wide range of options, whether looking for a quick bite or a hearty three-course meal. Grab a seat in the wraparound bar and take in the sophisticated scene over handcrafted cocktails—the watermelon caipirinha is a winner, as are steamed clams and fresh-shucked oysters. Or, opt for one of the cushy booths in the downstairs dining room over Maryland crab cakes and chipotle grilled shrimp enchiladas.
